Anticipating the unexpected

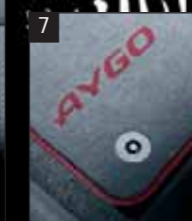

The way to ensure your AYGO stays the way you want it, whatever life throws at you.

It's weekend and you're in demand... city life is full of surprises. Your Aygo takes it in its stride, so you can look after your sister's kids and be back in time for that gig in the evening. The colour-matched floor mats are just the thing to ensure your interior stays just the way you want it, even after dropping off the kids and all their paraphernalia. You'll find the rubber mats will be a godsend.

The easy installation child seats will put your sister's mind at rest. They're washable too, which will also put your mind at rest. The handy trunk liner ensures your boot's well protected should the unexpected happen. And you've still got time to load in the DJ gear for that party and arrive in style.
